Liability

No entry is liable for more than the amount paid in, but there will be no refund payments. The right is reserved to reject any entry and to debar any entry from competition for failure to comply with the rules of the Atlantic National. Any and all disputes will be settled by the Board of Directors and their decision will be final. The nonprofit corporation of the Atlantic National Angus Show and its committees, officers, employees, agents, and representatives will not be responsible or liable for any injury, loss or damage sustained in any way by any exhibitor, employee of the exhibitor, spectator or any other person(s) to any article or animal exhibited by an exhibitor or the destruction or disappearance of such article or animal.

Identification Marks

Each animal must have legible permanent identification marks that correspond to the registration certificate. Any animal upon check-in which does not have any legible permanent identification marks corresponding to its registration certificate will be ineligible to show.

DNA

Under the American Angus Association rules each animal for which entry application (registration) is received may be subjected to a DNA test to verify both accuracy of parentage and blood type as covered under the current Association rules.

Fitting Rule

Effective July 1, 2004, any show where the American Angus Association appropriates funds towards payment of premiums, no exhibitors or member owners shall be allowed to use any coloring agents on any animal exhibited. No aerosol cans or other pressurized containers allowed in designated makeup areas.

Questions

If any problems arise when completing the entry forms, please contact the Atlantic National Angus Show office, 2051 Horseshoe Pike, Annville, PA 17003, telephone (717) 867-1809, fax (717) 867-1279 or email: bachauct@lmf.net

Amending Rules

The management reserves the right to amend or add to the rules as the Board of Directors of the Atlantic National Angus Show in its judgment may determine.

Substitutions

The show manager must approve all substitutions BEFORE the date of the show. Substitutions can only be made within the same sex and the birth date must be within 90 days of the original entry. This applies only to the open show. Substitutions are not permitted for the Junior Show.

Dress Code

All Junior and Open Show exhibitors are expected to dress neatly at all times. There is an Atlantic National Angus Show dress code in effect. Dark colored slacks or jeans are preferred. A plain light blue or white short/long sleeved shirt or light blue/white polo shirt must be worn in the show ring at all times – plains, stripes off color blue etc. are not acceptable. Remember – light color blue only. A dark blue sleeveless sweater is permitted. These do not need to have the AN logo on them. No baseball type hats or sleeveless shirts are to be worn in the show ring. A show harness must be worn while exhibiting cattle in the show ring. Numbers provided must be exhibited front and back before entering the show ring. Remember – plain light blue and white are the only colors. Be prepared – plan for this before the show.

>>>No pets or dogs allowed in cattle barns during the show.<<<

Some of these rules are necessarily based on the honesty and integrity of the participating junior member as well as his or her parents. Many of the most basic rules of the American Angus Association are similarly based. If any participating junior member has a question or concern about a particular rule, please contact Ms. Caitlyn Brandt – director of events and education, 3201 Frederick Ave, St. Joseph, MO 64506, 816-383-5100 to obtain the correct interpretation. The Association will periodically report on changes or significant interpretations of these rules in the Angus Journal. The junior show will follow the General Rules and Policy Statement of the American Angus Association as listed on the NJAA website.
