ANGUS
THE BUSINESS BREED

AT THE

CHECK-IN TIME: 9:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m. on Tues, Jan. 5th

We will check in by pen, starting with the alley closest to the Performance Arena. A regional manager will dismiss you.

LOCATION: In the Area between Night Pens and Barn 7. Look for Association Staff.

CHECK-IN PROCESS:

- ◆ Bring original registration papers and the animals to the check-in area.
- ◆ Association staff will provide each cattle handler an animal ID card to him/her before entering the chute. Please read and correct any information on the card.
- ◆ Tattoos or freeze brands (permanent identification marks) and papers will be checked on all animals.
- ◆ Tattoo (or other accepted permanent identification mark) must be legible and match the registration paper.
- ◆ Scrotal measurements will be taken on all bulls.
- ◆ All animals will be ultra-sounded.
- ◆ Exhibitors must designate the alternate heifers/bulls for each pen at check-in time. All pens must be designated by 1:00 p.m. to the superintendents on Tuesday. Note the rules on alternates from the premium book.
- ◆ COVID Waiver must be submitted at the time of check-in.

All Angus entries are subject to provisions of the rules of the American Angus Association. Exhibitors must designate alternate heifers/bulls (no more than two) at check-in to the American Angus Association pen and carload superintendent. If an alternate is to be used, following check-in, it can only be done in the case of death, unsoundness, or sickness. This must be approved one hour before the time of the show, by the Association superintendent. The decision of the superintendent will be final.

EXHIBITOR NUMBERS: By Friday afternoon, each exhibitor will receive a copy of the class breaks and an exhibitor number "back tag" for each pen in the show.
